

Dear FCC,

The Morse code has been a part of Amateur Radio from the beginning. It distinguishes the radio amateur from other spectrum users. Indeed, it is the identity of Amateur Radio. I strongly encourage you to retain Morse code testing for any amateur licensing above general class.

Thank you.

Tony O. Smith

AG4NE